 - (a) all your intellectual property rights in any works, designs and inventions, and in any forms of expression embodying such works, made by you, whether made solely by you or together with others, that have arisen in connection with the Project; and
 - (b) that such intellectual property rights assigned to TP shall include, without limitation, rights (i) worldwide; (ii) present and future; (iii) in any adaptation; (iv) to apply for and own patents, design registrations, copyrights, trade mark registrations or similar forms of protection worldwide; (v) to exploit the same in commerce or for public good; and (vi) to recover and take proceedings for infringement.
- 2 The benefits from TP to you (as may be applicable) in consideration for the above assignment, which consideration you acknowledge to be sufficient, include the following:

 - (b) TP's allowing you to participate in the Project; or
 - (c) without any obligation, TP's consideration of the use and industrial application of the intellectual property concerned in commerce or for public good, and if so, TP's efforts to secure its protection, development and exploitation.
- 3 You undertake and agree:
 - (a) that you will not grant nor agree to grant any intellectual property rights to any other party that conflicts with this Deed;
 - (b) to give to TP any known information relating to any intellectual property rights assigned under this Deed;
 - (c) to sign such further documents and do all things necessary, as may be requested by TP, in order to perfect or give effect to the assignment under this Deed; and
 - (d) that the intellectual property rights assigned under this Deed are neither defamatory nor libelous, and that they do not infringe the rights of any third party.
- 4 This Deed is binding on the parties' successors-in-title and assigns, as the case may be. Any delay or failure by TP to exercise any right shall not constitute a waiver. If any provision of this Deed is held to be unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed to have been severed and the rest of this Deed shall remain valid and enforceable.
